

Milen Kidane has been working with UNICEF Nigeria as Chief Child Protection since June 2017. In close collaboration with government and other key stakeholder, Milen provides strategic management, technical guidance and oversight and quality assurance of the UNICEF supported Child Protection Programme in Nigeria. As Chief of Child Protection, Milen leads the technical development, tracking and oversight of convergent programme strategies and approaches to maximize holistic results for children.

Between 2011 and 2017, Milen worked with UNICEF Eastern and Southern Regional Office (ESARO) as a Child Protection Specialist, focusing on Justice for Children and Civil Registration and Vital Statistics. In this capacity, Milen provided technical guidance to 21 countries in eastern and southern Africa.

Milen has almost 20 years of experience in managing child protection programmes throughout Africa, Asia and the Caribbean. Milen joined UNICEF-Eritrea in 2000 as a consultant and has worked with as a Emergency Child Protection Specialist in Afghanistan, the Democratic Republic of Congo and Iraq and has also managed field offices in Northern Uganda and Trinidad and Tobago.

Milen is an impassioned child rights advocate, engaging in legal reform and enhancing prevention and response services through a system approach for all vulnerable and at-risk children in both development and humanitarian settings.

Milen holds Masters Degree in International Human Rights and Democratization, from the University of Padua, Italy and a Bachelor's Degree in International Affairs from the University of Virginia. Milen is of Eritrean origin, born in Ethiopia, grew up in Vienna, Austria and is an Austrian citizen.
