Have a look at the video about the work from our alumna Melanie from #GCAfrica to create a humane schooling system for the children at the bottom of the system.

“We found that to truly recognise the right to education you need a relationship between articulation of rights and building the meaning of that right with local communities.”

To find out more about how our alumni make a difference in the realisation of children’s rights, have a look at our website: www.globalcampusalumni.org
